Just In By the Deadline ...PK

Just like completing your taxes by the IRS deadline this month, Dennis Fortier, VP received the new LSCC 50th Anniversary white metal Tokens just in time to share with us for this month's issue.

The large and bright tokens will be passed out during the Annual Meeting at this year's ANA Summer Convention in Pittsburgh and sent to members at no cost with their Summer Gobrecht Journal.

LSCC returns to ANA Summer Seminar

The LSCC is presenting our premier class at this outstanding learning event the last week of June. Summer Seminar is held adjacent to ANA Headquarters at Colorado College in Colorado Springs.

A Collector's Guide to Liberty Seated Coinage is being offered during Session 2, June 24-29. The class has limits on the number of students, so reserve early. The course catalog and registration information may be found at the ANA website:

www.money.org/summer-seminar

This course features interactive discussions on many topics, including the history and development of Liberty Seated coinage, evolution of the designs, and grading, including the nuances between series. The core of the class features a deep dive into each of the seven series: half dimes, dimes, twenty-cent pieces, quarters, halves, and both Liberty Seated and Trade dollars.

These deep dives entail hand's on inspection of many coins in all grades in all series, and will include in-depth discussions into collecting strategies, key dates, major varieties, and variety attribution. Historical perspectives on various topics will be offered throughout the course. Students will have access to both reference materials and sit-down guidance from instructors throughout the course.

Instructors: John Frost (LSCC Education Director), Len Augsburger (LSCC President), and Craig Eberhart (Auction column, noted New Orleans coinage expert).

Regional News

Central States and Deep Dish Pizza

This month brings the Regional Team to four great regional shows. The New Hampshire Coin and Currency Expo, the GNA show (Dalton, GA), Central States (Schaumburg, IL), and the PVCC show (Norwich, CT).

The second (and final) offering of Club medals is now closed. The order has gone in to the manufacturer.

Up and Coming Shows

The New Hampshire Coin and Currency Expo, April 7-8, Double Tree Hotel, 700 Elm St., Manchester, NH. Joe Casazza, Northeast Regional Director, will host the Club table at this cornerstone regional show on the LSCC calendar. This begins the fifteenth year of our association with this show. John Frost will display a portion of the vast "Lane Brunner Double Dime Collection". The Regional meeting and education program will be held on Friday afternoon.

GNA, Dalton, GA, April 14-15, Northwest Georgia Trade & Convention Center, 2211 Dug Gap Mountain Battle Rd. Ken Otto and Dennis Fortier will host the Club table. This is one of the finest shows in the deep south.

Central States Numismatic Assoc., Schaumburg, IL, April 27-28, Schaumburg Renaissance Hotel & Convention Center, 1551 North Thoreau Drive. Ken Otto and Dennis Fortier host the Club table at this recently revived and excellent show. Club President Len Augsburg will be presiding at the Regional Club meeting which by the way will be “Live Streamed”. Len’s Educational Presentation will be “Buy the Best You can Afford.” Central States is one of the best Regional shows on the LSCC calendar. An added pleasure is enjoying some of Chicago’s famous deep dish pizza.

PVCC Annual Coin Show, May 7, Holiday Inn, 10 Laura Blvd., Norwich, CT. Verne Pitman will host the Club table at this fine area show. This event features several dealer/collectors that only sell at this one show. A good opportunity to pick up some new material.

Last Month’s Shows

TSNA Chattanooga, March 3-4. Club Vice President Dennis Fortier hosted the Club table at this new show for the LSCC. He displayed his New Orleans Half Dollars.

Whitman Coin Expo, Baltimore, MD, March 16-18. John Frost displayed a portion of the “Lane Brunner Collection of Double Dimes to an overwhelmed public. Never before have so many double dimes been displayed in any one place. The die variety section had double dimes stacked like Morgan silver dollars in a dealer’s case. The errors and exnumia were a sight to behold.

The Club meeting had twenty members in attendance. Overall show attendance was a bit less than usual, but enthusiasm was high and with Spring on the horizon in the mid-Atlantic.

The Curious Collector

A Die State Digression

This month we'll skip our usual ramblings and jump into a specific issue, in this case the 1869-S quarter. This is a low mintage issue, with 76,000 pieces struck. CAC has certified but fifteen examples, with only two pieces at Mint State levels. PCGS reports 140 coins total with seven examples across all Mint State grades. The PCGS price guide notes valuations of $650 in F12, $1,500 in XF40 and $10,000 in MS63. The most recent sale in the Gerry Fortin Rare Coins sales archive is a PCGS VF35 piece that sold at $1,300 in February 2022. Clearly, this is a challenging coin.

Where else can we get additional information on this issue? There are two useful sources – the Briggs Encyclopedia and Greg Johnson's "Quarter of the Month" series from the E-Gobrecht. The "Quarter of the Month" index at <https://archive.org/details/QuarterOfTheMonth> indicates that Greg has not yet written up this coin. (Note to Greg: Please write more "Quarter of the Month" style columns!) Briggs provides helpful information on the die characteristics. The reverse die is shared with the 1866-S and 1867-S issues, and bears a telltale cut through the small-sized mintmark.

The most interesting thing in the Briggs Encyclopedia is this statement: "Very rare without obverse cracks." From here we navigate to the Heritage Auctions archive in order to examine a few 1869-S quarters. The HA archive (<https://coins.ha.com/c/search-results.zx?Ns=Price%7c1&Ne=46&N=790+231+51+313+4080+1589&ic3=ViewItem-Auction-Archive-BackToSearch-081514#1254-68015>) reports a total of 120 pieces sold since 1996, or about 4.5 examples per year. As an aside, it is useful for collectors to remember that rarity and availability are not always the same thing. Rarity is somewhat of a proxy for price, while availability reflects the true difficulty of acquisition.

In any case, the Briggs assessment of the obverse die state is dead on. Most pieces exhibit some degree of die cracking. This F12 example, sold for $504 in October 2021, is an exception:

I suspect that circulation has worn down some evidence of the die cracking. More typical is this; an MS64 example that sold for $8,518.75 in June 2016. A crack encircles nearly the whole obverse, connecting the stars:

So, should an earlier die state example be more highly valued? At this point, the market says no. This coin is already challenging enough that collectors are not concerned about die states. I'll take a contrarian view and argue that pieces with perfect dies should be worth more. These coins are better made and accurately exhibit the design as the engraver intended. Further, for the 1869-S quarter, examples are rare and should be valued as such. Still, I have no illusions that die state collecting among Liberty Seated quarter collectors will gain traction anytime soon – there are simply not enough coins to go around. All that said, if you can acquire a nice example with perfect dies at a reasonable price, why not?

Full disclosure: I own an 1869-S quarter in PCGS AU58 CAC that exhibits ample die cracks.

LSCC's 50th Anniversary Celebration is now ramping up. Look for activities at the various Regional Show Events including the Annual Meeting at this year's ANA Convention in Pittsburgh.

Editor's Note: As you may have noticed over the last year, the most significant articles and columns in E-Gobrecht are now being published in The Gobrecht Journal, so with LSCC membership you get the very best of what the Liberty Seated Collectors Club has to offer its members.
