

A Public Service Announcement to Benefit Other Members by a long time fellow LSCC Member “Saturday, I returned in the evening to find my home had been broken into.

Drawers dumped and much stuff pulled from cabinets. My 61-year coin collection and much inherited jewelry was in a huge pile. I was relieved to find ALL LS coin sets were intact. Not that I was happy, but felt less-bad when I found all key dates.

They only wanted GOLD and took about 2 oz of eagles, cash and a handgun. I had no inventory list of jewelry, but a lot of gold and gemstones were not taken and were abandoned.

Despite my experience with security in the past, I had become complacent in not returning items to the safe. Important items were in old, reinforced boxes sitting out in the open and were completely ignored.

Much effort was expended to bypass locked gates and to break through a back door. Neighbors saw nor heard anything.

I hope something good or less-bad will come from my story. Feel free to share this with others.

(END)

ANA Summer Seminar 2025 — New Class! (only a few spots left)

The Liberty Seated Collectors Club (LSCC) and the Barber Coin Collectors' Society (BCCS) will be offering a new class during Session 1 at the 2025 ANA Summer Seminar, June 21-26, in Colorado Springs:

The New Orleans Mint Coinage and its History

This course will cover the coins and the history of the New Orleans Mint from its origin in 1835 to its final closure in 1909. The silver and gold coins produced at the New Orleans Mint are comparable to the Philadelphia Mint both in type and quantity. From arduous early days marked by epidemics and deaths, a struggle to mint coins with limited dies being stored in tropical conditions, to changing hands three times during the Civil War, its complicated history is written in its coins. The course will include discussions of the 40 (or so) types of New Orleans coins, individual dates, major varieties, hands-on attribution exercises, and grading discussions.

Instructors: Craig Eberhart (LSCC Secretary), Len Augsburger (LSCC President) and John Frost (BCCS President).

This class is almost full... Sign up today at: money.org/summer-seminar

(END)